Lewis Family Has Had Six Generations Born Here ^{13 July} 1960

Another family which has had six generations born in or near Napanee is the Lewis family, which has four generations living.

Last week The Beaver reported the birth of the sixth generation of the Gibbard family to be born at Napanee.

Decendants of Benjamin Lewis, born in 1801, and who had four brothers serve in the War of 1812, the representatives of four generations living are Gasper Lewis, born in 1880; William Lewis, born in 1915; Robert Lewis, born in 1937, and Stephen Lewis, born this week

All six generations from Benjamin Lewis down, were born within 10 miles of Napanee. Benjamin Lewis' father, William, settled in Canada as an United Empire Loyalist on the Stewart Shetlar farm in the first concession of Camden Township.

Gasper Lewis' father, Benjamin Lewis, Jr., was born in 1846. Gasper Lewis has 13 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.
